

Care

It is enough for me when I sense about how deep for me is your attention and care

It is immaterial if your eyes are not dreamy or you are seemingly not quite fair.
It is enough for me when I realize in sadness or in pain
That you would search out and bring for me every comfort so that fast I regain!

It is enough for me to feel and realize when you cleverly enquire
About how I am planning these days, so that I succeed in my desire
The world is tough and I often do not find time for you my dear,
For my unintended neglect for you though, never any complaint do I ever hear!

You are my strength, the spark in my life
Your attention and care gives me strength to face the tough
Life is perhaps about a joint resolution integrated and unified.
I am lucky that our sweet wedding knot was so rationally tied!